

Core Knowledge

- Discrimination means the unfair treatment of a person or group based on traits such as skin colour, race, or religion.
- Fighting for important causes has helped to change laws and improve the lives of many people.
- People fight for a range of causes due to their beliefs, such as: animal cruelty, pollution, global warming, climate change and Fairtrade.
- The Carbon Light Bulb Filament was invented by Lewis Latimer in 1881, who was the son of escaped slaves.
- Some materials are conductors and some are insulators.
- Ordinary people can do extraordinary things.

Fighting For A Cause

Domain Themes

- People who fought for a cause
- Susan B. Anthony – an advocate for women's rights
- Mary McLeod Bethune: A dedicated teacher
- Jackie Robinson: Champion of equality
- Rosa Parks: The mother of the civil rights movements
- Martin Luther King Jr: Defender of the dream
- Cesar Chavez: Protector of workers' rights

Home Learning

- Visit the local library and research about someone who stood up for what they believed in.
- Visit the Unicef website together, the resources will support yours and your child's knowledge about the rights they have.
- Watch the video about Martin Luther King – 'LK: The King and his Dream' MLK- The King and His Dream - YouTube and discuss how he stood up not just for himself but for others too.
- Produce a fact file or a poem about someone who stood up for what they believed in.
- Take time to help your child understand and use the key vocabulary for this domain.

Key Vocabulary

- Courage
- Civil Rights
- Discrimination
- Inequality
- Privilege
- Activists
- Society
- Migrant workers
- Devotion
- Influential
- Intimidate
- Hostility
- Plight
- Obstacles
- Human Rights
- Segregation
- Ballots
- Segregation
- Democratic
- Disabilities
- Politics
- Injustice
- Heritage
- Suffrage
- Challenge
- Boycott
- Dignity

Core Knowledge

- Susan B. Anthony was a woman who fought to end slavery and to get women the right to vote.
- Eleanor Roosevelt fought for all people to have the right to a better life.
- Mary McLeod Bethune helped to get better educational opportunities for people.
- Rosa Parks helped to make life fairer for African Americans living in the South.
- Martin Luther King Jr did many things to make life better for all Americans.
- Cesar Chavez helped to ensure that all workers received a fair amount of money.